Meeting basic requirements does not constitute "A" work. Below is the basic rubric.

100	This is reserved for some of the best that I have seen. The teaching naturally flows. The objective is clear and well executed. The software is used to support the objective well.
98	An excellent quality project or presentation. It follows established interactive teaching methods. It is obvious that it is intended to be used.
95	A very good quality project or presentation. It is obvious that it is intended to be used.
92	A good quality project or presentation. It met the basic intent of the objective.
90	Overall a good quality project or presentation. There was either minor problems with the execution or it did not meet the intent of the objective.
88	The project or presentation met the basic requirements. There was some effort to make it useful, but there were problems with the execution.
85	The project or presentation met the basic requirements, but did not go beyond that. It is obvious that very little effort was put in and there is no intention to use the project or presentation.
Below	Did not meet minimum requirements. The actual score is to be determined.
